This profile presents data from the 2020 Census Redistricting File (P.L. 94-171) published by the U.S. Census Bureau. According to the Census Bureau,

Public Law 94-171, enacted in 1975, directs the U.S. Census Bureau to make special preparations to provide redistricting data needed by the 50 states. It specifies that within 1 year following Census Day, the Census Bureau must send the governor and legislative leadership in each state the data they need to redraw districts for the U.S. Congress and state legislatures. To meet this legal requirement, the Census Bureau set up a program that affords state officials an opportunity before each decennial census to define the small areas for which they wish to receive census population totals for redistricting purposes.

Total Population by Race and Hispanic Origin Table

Race data are self-identified by people according to the race or races with which they most closely identify. Hispanic persons are people who identify themselves as Hispanic/Latino/Latina or of Spanish origin. People of Hispanic origin may be of any race.
